Our nation's capital is one of the most interesting and exciting cities in the world, filled with first-class museums, monuments and landmarks. Residents of Illinois' 8th Congressional District planning a trip to Washington, DC can contact Congresswoman Bean's Washington office to arrange for Congressional tours throughout the capital city.

Congresswoman Bean's office can assist you in making advanced reservations for:

- The U.S.Capitol
- The Library of Congress
- The Bureau of Engraving and Printing
- The Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts
- The White House

Tours are subject to restrictions, including availability, group size, and security threats. Unfortunately, we cannot guarantee any tours other than the U.S. Capitol
All tickets are distributed on a first-come, first-served basis, and there are a limited number of spaces available. Therefore if you wish to obtain tickets, please submit your requests as far in advance as possible.

To make a tour request, please fill out our tour request form .

Please note that the White House requires certain security information from all visitors. In order to process your White House tour request, please fill out the White House security spreadsheet and e-mail it to bean.tours@mail.house.gov.

You will receive a confirmation e-mail that your request has been received and is being processed. If you do not receive a notification of receipt, please contact Congresswoman Bean's Washington office at 202-225-3711.

Also, when you are in Washington, DC, Congresswoman Bean encourages you to stop by her office, which is located at 432 Cannon House Office Building across from the United States Capitol. The staff can provide you with visitors' passes to the gallery of the House of Representatives, as well as other useful information about Washington attractions. If you cannot make it to Washington, we encourage you to take a virtual tour of the Capitol .
